Some rules....We are very flexible but do need to know if you are coming or not. We have two event locations so a FPAR staff member will ask you to be at a certain location. We have no problem if you cannot make an event but need to know. We are at our events rain or shine/hot or cold. We are allowed inside the stores so no one will have to be outside but the dogs will need walks...that is the biggest part of volunteering. Dog walkers will be provided with bags to clean up after their pet.....PLEASE do so. We are a Petco Partner and very proud to be so.

All potential Adoptions are to be directed to a FPAR staff member.

A FPAR staff member will give an orientation to all new volunteers on first day. Any disregard for our rules or inappropriate behavior toward the dogs and we will ask you to leave. These dogs are very precious and mean the world to us.

You also release, hold harmless and forever discharge Forgotten Paws Animal Rescue, or any of the Directors from any and all claims arising from volunteering at our events. All information with respect to the animal's health and behavior that is known has been represented and disclosed by Forgotten Paws Animal Rescue, Directors or any affiliates in good faith. This agreement is binding on the volunteer and all members of the volunteer's household.

All of the above information I have been given is true and complete. I agree to follow the Rules and Procedures of Forgotten Paws Animal Rescue. I will not hold Forgotten Paws Animal Rescue responsible for any damage, injury, or harm caused directly or indirectly to any person or property by any dog at the time of volunteering.

I have read the disclaimer and agree to these terms and conditions.
